

UPS Peak Surcharge

October 17, 2021 Update

UPS will continue service amid the ongoing coronavirus outbreak to support the demand and needs of our customers. Our goal is to ensure businesses and customers are able to meet their shipping needs as the demand for air cargo capacity increases.

UPS Peak Surcharges

Since April 12, 2020, a Peak Surcharge has been applicable to international shipments.

This is an evolving situation and since then the temporary surcharge has been subject to changes due to market conditions and may be extended or otherwise changed. Shippers shall continue to check ups.com/peaksurcharge for updates prior to tendering shipments.

Effective October 17, 2021 until further notice, the amount of the Peak Surcharge applied to shipments from China Mainland and Hong Kong SAR as well as other major Asia Pacific origins¹ to India will increase. All other previously announced Peak Surcharges will continue to apply as set forth below and the amounts of those Peak Surcharges remain unchanged.

Peak Surcharges will apply to all packages above 0.5kg, including letters and documents shipped for the origins, destinations, and service levels in the amounts set forth below. Peak Surcharges apply in addition to all other applicable Charges.
