

UPS® Peak Surcharge

September 20, 2020 Update

UPS will continue service amid the ongoing coronavirus situation to support the demand and needs of our customers. Our goal is to ensure businesses and customers are able to meet their shipping needs as the demand for air cargo capacity changes during this time.

UPS Peak Surcharges

As previously announced, peak surcharges apply to certain international shipments, effective April 12 2020. Effective September 20, 2020 until further notice, the amount of the peak surcharges applied to shipments from China Mainland and Hong Kong SAR to Europe, last revised on June 28, 2020, will increase in response to evolving market conditions.

The previously announced peak surcharges for all other international shipments for the 19 countries in Europe¹ will continue to apply.

Peak surcharges are subject to change without notice and peak periods may be extended or otherwise changed. Shippers should continue to check ups.com for updates prior to tendering shipments.

The surcharges will apply to packages shipped during the specified peak periods for the origins, destinations, and service levels in the amounts set forth below. Peak surcharges apply in addition to all other applicable charges.

A. Peak Surcharge – Applied to shipments from China Mainland or Hong Kong SAR to Europe

A peak surcharge applies to any shipment originating from China Mainland or Hong Kong SAR to 19 countries in Europe¹ for the service levels and peak periods set forth below.

Effective September 20 2020, until further notice, the surcharge amounts applied to these shipments will increase. It will be calculated as a rate per kilogram based upon the billable weight of the shipment.
