

Notice to UPS Customers Shipping Consumer Commodity, ORM-D

Effective January 1, 2021, the ORM-D classification will no longer be valid. Packages marked as ORM-D after January 1, 2021 will be a violation of 49CFR Hazardous Materials Regulations (HMRs). Thus, the marking cannot be used after that date. For further information, please visit this page.

Most commodities shipped as Consumer Commodity, ORM-D, may be shipped as UPS Ground Limited Quantity shipments. Please visit ups.com to view the UPS Tariff/Terms and Conditions for eligibility.

Note: This regulatory change also applies to shipments of cartridges, small arms and cartridges, power devices, and all other currently-classed ORM-D shipments.
