

UPS Dangerous Goods Agreement

(For U.S. Domestic and U.S. Outbound Small Package Services Only)

This UPS Agreement sets forth the Shipper’s commitment to read, understand, and be bound by the applicable “UPS Guide for Shipping Ground and Air Hazardous Materials” and “UPS Guide for Shipping International Dangerous Goods” as well as the UPS Tariff/Terms and Conditions in effect at the time of shipping when shipping dangerous goods regulated under Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations (“49 CFR”), the International Civil Aviation Organization Technical Instructions for the Safe Transport of Dangerous Goods by Air, and the International Air Transport Association (IATA) Dangerous Goods Regulations (collectively, “Dangerous Goods”). Dangerous Goods may be referenced in the UPS Tariff/Terms and Conditions or “UPS Guide for Shipping International Dangerous Goods” as “Hazardous Materials” for purposes of this Agreement. In addition, the Shipper agrees to comply with all applicable regulatory requirements, including those set forth in 49 CFR and the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations when shipping Dangerous Goods with UPS.

The Shipper agrees that all Dangerous Goods packages tendered to UPS will be properly classified, packaged, marked, and labeled. Failure to do so could result in fines, penalties, or other claims. In addition, the Shipper acknowledges that UPS may refuse to accept, may return, or may properly dispose of Dangerous Goods packages if UPS determines that the packages are improperly prepared.

The Shipper also represents that all its employees involved in preparing a Dangerous Goods package for transport with UPS have been properly trained under the requirements of 49 CFR and applicable provisions of the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations, and will provide supporting proof of such training upon request. Failure to properly train employees could result in regulatory fines and/or penalties, as well as other claims.

The Shipper acknowledges that UPS has the right to suspend, cancel and/or terminate this Agreement if the Shipper fails to comply with this Agreement. The Shipper acknowledges that it has been informed to read the UPS Tariff for additional information, limitations, and requirements regarding UPS’ acceptance of Dangerous Goods packages, which may be referenced in the UPS Tariff as “Hazardous Materials.” The most recent version of the UPS Tariff may be found on the internet at www.ups.com.

The shipper acknowledges that UPS will only handle certain commodities to approved destination countries in its Dangerous Goods service. As such, Shipper agrees to tender to UPS only those Dangerous Goods shipments which have been approved by UPS for transport to the agreed upon destination countries

The term of this Agreement shall be for one year from the date set forth below. This Agreement shall be automatically renewed for successive one-year periods unless terminated. Either party may terminate this Agreement at any time upon thirty (30) days written notice to the other party. Accepted and Agreed To:
