UPS Polska complies with Polish legislation, including regulations related to taxes. UPS Polska's tax strategy reflects this requirement, and, with respect to Poland, can be summarized as follows:

- UPS Polska's tax strategy is to:
 - meet all legal requirements and to make all appropriate tax returns and tax payments, in accordance with Polish law, taking into account all relevant international provisions,
 - comply with appropriate tax risk processes, and ensure there is Management Board's oversight into this compliance.
- UPS Polska's internal structure is set up to ensure that:
 - The Management Board understand the importance of tax compliance and how it is achieved.
 - There is a regular dialogue between the Management Board and those individuals tasked with the management of the finance and tax functions, regarding the way UPS business manages the tax risk.
 - The business portrays a positive view towards compliance and the importance of meeting UPS Polska's tax and reporting obligations.
- UPS Polska's management board is responsible for managing and conducting key local business activities and for identification and management of tax risks associated with the Company's operations in close cooperation of the European region's tax team. Any tax issues have to be reported to them.
- The European region's tax team is responsible for support of the local finance manager with respect to any uncertain tax positions as well as any tax queries and tax audits. The appropriate identification and assessment of the economic event and the collection of relevant source documentation shall be the responsibility of the staff of the relevant departments.
- The finance manager is responsible for reviewing, approving, and filing of tax returns in close cooperation and consultation of the European region's tax team.
- UPS Polska works with tax advisors to ensure that the local company's tax obligations are properly prepared, reported and filed and taxes due are paid.
- The Company enters into transactions or agreements that have a substance in accordance with the relevant regulations, as well as a business, commercial or other non-tax purpose.

The Company will not conclude transactions in order to obtain a tax advantage that is clearly and unequivocally inconsistent with applicable law.

- Given the scale of business and volume of tax obligations, risks will inevitably arise from time to time in relation to the interpretation of complex tax law and the nature of compliance arrangements. UPS Polska actively seeks to identify, evaluate, monitor and manage these risks to ensure they remain in line with its objectives. The governance processes within Poland adopt group-wide procedures and controls and are aimed at fulfillment of all tax obligations arising from the tax law provisions within the meaning of Article 3 point 2 of the Tax Ordinance Act. Whenever identified, tax risks to UPS Polska are mitigated through application of governance processes and procedures and dialogue with the Polish Tax Authorities. Where there are significant uncertainties or complexities in relation to a risk, external advice from tax advisors is obtained.
- The Company implemented tax procedures and internal controls in accordance with the tax regulations for the submission of tax reporting, filing proper tax declarations and payment of taxes due.
